Projects

- Custom Music Player

Description: I have created a custom music player using HTML, CSS and JavaScript .This music player has several features like you can loop, repeat and shuffle a song, play/pause a song or play the next or previous song. You can view your song list and also know which song is currently playing and you can also select the song from the list to play.

- NetFlix India Clone Web site

Description: I have created this website for learning purpose. In this project, you can click on any series and it will show you its trailer. I have developed its UI by using react and I used an API called TMDB (The Movie Database) which fetches all the trailers.
